

EARN COLLEGE SCHOLARHIP MONEY!

Do you know a teen looking to earn some college scholarship money? Idaho Falls Power (IFP) is currently accepting applications for the annual Idaho Consumer-Owned Utilities Association (ICUA) Youth Rally and scholarship program.

WHAT IS THE YOUTH RALLY?

The Youth Rally is a leadership camp and scholarship program held each summer at the College of Idaho campus in Caldwell. Its mission is to inspire, teach and help young people develop the leadership skills they possess. IFP, along with other public utilities, sponsor local high school sophomores and juniors to learn about the U.S. Government, consumerowned utilities, and the basics of electricity. Students also work in teams to solve business challenges and political issues. The week also includes an obstacle course, a dance, a talent show and the opportunity to make lasting friendships with others from throughout the region.

WHO ATTENDS THE YOUTH RALLY?

Teens who attend the Youth Rally represent over 40 rural communities from Idaho, Alaska, Oregon, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Nevada and Utah. IFP is proud to sponsor six to 10 teens each year for the annual event.

HOW DO TEENS EARN SCHOLARSHIPS?

The teens are evaluated throughout the week on class engagement, participation, teamwork, leadership and overcoming obstacles. At the end of the week, evaluated scores are used to award scholarships. In addition to scholarship money, one ldaho student with the highest score will represent the state in Washington, D.C., the following year at the National Youth Rally.

WHAT IS THE ICUA?

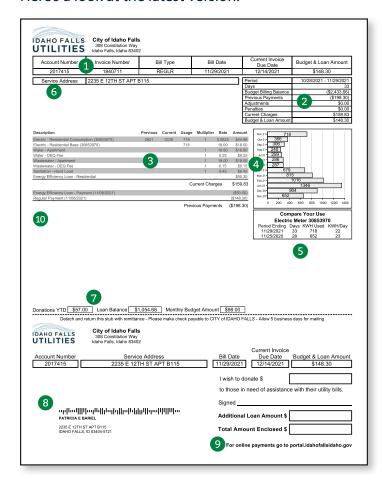

The ICUA represents 22 of Idaho's rural electric cooperatives and municipalities that provide electrical services to the state of Idaho. ICUA member companies serve over 137,000 customers throughout Idaho and serve approximately 16 percent of all electric consumers in Idaho. ICUA is an Idaho non-profit corporation that was originally charted in 1948.

HOW CAN TEENS APPLY?

Idaho Falls high school sophomores and juniors are eligible to apply. Students interested in attending the rally must fill out an application, available at www.ifpower.org or at our office located at 140 S. Capital Ave., by April 1. All students who submit applications will be interviewed for consideration. For additional questions, please contact IFP at 208-612-8430 or at ifpinfo@ifpower.org. Applications will also be available at each Idaho Falls high school.
